

WELCOME to AUSTRALIAN FORMULA 3

2021 INFORMATION GUIDE

THE CATEGORY

Australian Formula 3 is a proven development category for drivers looking at either progressing their career internationally or locally, or simply to enjoy the most relevant wings and slicks category in the country. A fiercely competitive, yet surprisingly affordable series boasts the most authentic Formula racing experience in the region.

Australian Formula 3 is managed by Formula 3 Management Pty Ltd, a company formed with the sole purpose of promoting and growing 'Wings and Slicks' racing in Australia by:

Providing the most cost-effective international spec open-wheel racing in Australia.

Offering the most competitive racing possible.

Providing the best 'training base' for drivers seeking to progress their career either in Australia or Overseas, plus a stable platform for those wishing to enjoy driving the fastest racing cars in Australia.

In 2021 Australian Formula 3 will again be run and promoted by Formula 3 Management Pty Ltd, as a part of the Australian Motor Racing Series (AMRS) promising to continually increase the exposure of the National Championship further.

But don't take our word for it: Call our teams, ask them. Compare us with other categories and see the value for money that racing in Australian Formula 3 provides.

TIM MACROW RACING

Contact Tim Macrow | 0402 480 575 | tim@motorkote.com.au

Situated in Melbourne, Tim Macrow Racing was started by Tim Macrow and father Peter in 2005. With great results in their older model Dallara F301, Tim drove for various teams from 2007 through to 2016; winning 3 championships and cementing himself as one of the most successful drivers in Australian Formula 3 history. During that time Tim kept the business going through driver coaching and car preparation in his Melbourne workshop, preparing cars in the Radical Australia Cup, Historic Formula Ford and Formula 3. Tim coupled that with coaching and engineering jobs in V8 Supercars and the Australian GT championship with driving stints in LMP3 China and China GT. In 2020 Tim is expanding his operations with cars being run over various categories including Australian Formula 3; where he hopes to develop new Australian talent.

OUR PRIVATEERS

Along with our teams' entries, Australian Formula 3 enjoys a large number of privateer entries. Whether running independently or under one of our team's support agreements, our privateers have enjoyed a great amount of success over the years such is the competitiveness of Australian Formula 3.
